

LINTON, EVERETT CHARLES
February 22, 1921-April 5, 1959

Everett Charles Linton passed away at the Platte County Memorial hospital Sunday about three hours after suffering a self-inflicted gunshot wound. After investigation of the death by Coroner Ted S. Schrader, County Atty. Wm. R. Jones and Sheriff W. I. Sutherland it was decided that no inquest be held.

The son of Harry G. and Hattie Petty Linton, he was born on February 22, 1921 in Wheatland and was a lifetime resident. He was a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, having served during World War II. His occupation was that of a bartender and he had been employed at the La Ramie Bar for twelve years.

Funeral services were held from the Schrader chapel at 2 p.m. Wednesday with Rev. Vern M. Kruse the officiating minister and burial in the Wheatland cemetery. Pallbearers were Frank Soward, Andy Robinson, William Rider, James Perdue, Mel Dietrich and Reuben Good.

He is survived by his wife, Lila; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Linton; two brothers, Master Sgt. Bill Linton, Rantoul, Ill. And Airman 1/c Raymond Linton, Lowry Air Base; one sister, Mrs. Cora Bowman of Casper and several uncles and aunts. One brother George preceded him in death at Pearl Harbor.