

LUTHER LOCK 2-17-1985

Services for Luther D. Lock, 71, who died in Wheatland Feb. 17, will be held at the Wheatland Bible Church Thursday, Feb. 21 at 2 p.m. with the Reverend Bob Little and the Reverend Elmo Meloy officiating.

Lock was born in Penalosa, Kan., Sept. 25, 1913, the son of Harvey and Mabel Lock.

During the "dust bowl" days he moved with his family to Baca County in Colorado and graduated from high school in that area.

The family moved to Penrose, Colo., where he operated a dairy and construction firm with his father. Later he and his brother ran a custom farm operation which expanded to a custom harvesting business that he worked from Texas to the Canadian border.

He and Ruth Grout were married, July 16, 1938, in Penrose.

He started a trucking company which he moved to Wheatland in 1956. He actively operated Lock Trucking until recently turning the business over to his son.

He is a member of the Assembly of God Church, and a member of the Men's Fellowship Prayer Breakfast which meets weekly. His hobbies were hunting and fishing and recently he was active in keeping the Platte Co. coyote population to a minimum.

Survivors include his wife Ruth of Wheatland; a son Norman Lock of Wheatland; two daughters: Sharon Oman of Shelby, Mont., and Shirley Keil of Wheatland; three brothers: Vernice Lock of Naples, Idaho; Paul Lock and William Lock, both of Penrose; two sisters: Irene Taylor and Oletta Schwabe both of Pueblo, Colo.; and six grandchildren.

A memorial in his name has been established to the Golden Rul Christian School in care of the Assembly of God Church.

Burial will be in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home of Wheatland was in charge of arrangements.
