

LOFING, DONNA RAE
February 18, 1949-October 27, 1947

Donna Rae Lofing, the eight month old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Lofing, died Wednesday evening, despite an emergency flight to Denver in an attempt to save her life.

The infant swallowed a large splinter at her home Tuesday. Because of the seriousness of her condition, she and Mrs. Lofing were flown to Denver by John Fryback on Tuesday evening where she was admitted to Children's hospital. She passed away Wednesday evening due to her lung having been punctured by the splinter.

She was eight months and nine days old at the time of her death.

Besides her parents, her survivors include five sisters, Mrs. Floyd Hagerman, Mrs. Bob Stevenson, Mrs. Paul Dorbins, and Margaret Lofing and Glenda Jean Lofing; and one brother, Dewydne Lofing.

No arrangements have been made as yet for funeral services.
