

LOOMIS, MILDRED EMMA FREEMAN

January 25, 1906-October 28, 1990

Funeral services for Mildred Emma Loomis, age 84, were held in the Platte Funeral Chapel Wednesday, Oct. 31, with the Rev. Dr. James S. Vuocolo officiating. Mrs. Loomis died Sunday, Oct. 28, following a long illness.

Mrs. Loomis was born Jan. 25, 1906, the daughter of James G. and Emma L. (Bird) Freeman. She was reared in the Wheatland area and graduated from the local schools. She attended beauty school in Denver, and worked for Park's Flowers.

She married Harry Loomis Dec. 19, 1928, in Wheatland. After their marriage, they ranched until 1966 when they sold the ranch and moved into Wheatland. In 1970 she moved to Powell until April 1980 when she moved to Cheyenne to be near her family.

Mildred was a member of Eastern Star, American Legion Auxiliary, Laramie Peak Cow-Belles, and the Dorcas Society. She is survived by her daughter, Bonnie Lutterman of Olympia, Wash., and her step-son, Hugh Loomis of Omaha, Neb. Seven grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren also survive. She was preceded in death by her husband, her parents, three brothers, eight sisters, and a daughter.

Serving as pallbearers were Sunny Criss, Chuck Gorman, Don Cundall, Ray Yost, Pat Daly, and Jim Arnold.

A memorial has been established to the Laramie Peak Museum, Platte County Memorial Hospital, and the Gottsche Rehabilitation Center in Thermopolis, Wyo.

The Platte Funeral Chapel was in charge of arrangements.
