

LUCK, HERMAN ROBERT
November 9, 1894-June 18, 1965

Born in Monticello, Ia. on Nov. 9, 1894, death claimed Herman Robert Luck at the Rose Memorial Hospital in Denver on June 18, 1965 following an extended illness. He was married to Esther L. Luck in Canton, S.Dak. on Feb. 3, 1932. He was employed as a mechanic at the Ford Motor Co. in Laramie for 24 years before moving to Wheatland in 1947 to farm, then retiring to do shoe repair.

Mr. Luck was a veteran of World War I, enlisting in September 1917 as a private in the Army and receiving his discharge in February 1918. He was a member of the Methodist Church and the Last Squad club of Laramie.

Along with many friends, relatives left to mourn include his wife of Wheatland; son, Dr. David Luck of Littleton, Colo.; two daughters, Mrs. Jeanne Qualls of Cheyenne and Mrs. Lorraine Shuler of Ft. Collins, Colo.; brothers, William of Tacoma, Wash., Ed of Monticello, Ia., Richard of Anamosa, Ia. and sisters, Mrs. Harry Gerjets and Mrs. Clarence Johnson, both of Monticello and Mrs. Lee Aldrich of Oelwein, Ia. Five grandchildren also survive.

Last rites were held at the Wheatland Methodist Church on June 21 at 11:00 a.m. with Dr. H.H. Lindeman and Rev. Henry Hartberg officiating. Interment was in the Wheatland cemetery with James Irvine, Sr., Ennis Small, James Hupy, Dean Ryff, Robert Lowry and Charles Thorne, Jr. serving as pallbearers.