

Charles F. Lyman dies at home in Guernsey

Charles Francis Lyman, 63, died suddenly at his home in Guernsey on April 5, 1966. Before moving to Guernsey, where he spent most of his lifetime, he was a resident of Sterling, Colo. He was employed as a switchman for the Burlington Railroad Co. for 39 years before his retirement. Mr. Lyman was born in Bayard, Nebr. on Dec. 23, 1902 and was a member of the Brotherhood Railway Trainmen.

He is survived by his wife Bertha O. Lyman and sons, Harold and Raymond all of Guernsey; daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Haggerty of Bay City, Mich.; three stepsons, Roy Day of Lost Springs, Lester Day of Wheatland and Warren McCane of Barstow, Calif. and one sister, Mrs. Blanch Story of Denver. There are also two grandchildren.

Rev. Robert Carpenter will conduct the last rites at the Schrader Chapel on Sat., Apr. 9 at 10:00 a. m. with interment in the Wheatland cemetery. Serving as pallbearers will be Robert Tenney, Lawrence Larson, Joe Graham, Fred Kelly, Harold Foy and Geo. Briscoe.

GUERNSEY GAZETTE
THUR. APRIL 14, 1966