

NYLANDER, JONAS MAGNA
September 20, 1866-March 18, 1949

J.M. "Mike" Nylander, 72, was born in Sweden September 20, 1866 and died March 18 at Bellflower, Calif., following a long illness. He was a retired rancher and had resided in Wheatland for many years before moving to Bellflower. He was a member of the Methodist church.

Survivors include his wife Effie Mae, two sons, August Nylander of Rosebud, S.D., Dan Nylander of Los Angeles, Calif.; three daughters, Mrs. Mabel King of Long Beach, Mrs. Viola Peppers of Dwyer, and Mrs. Ruth Riley of Casper; one sister, Mrs. Emma Owens of Long Beach; three granddaughters; several nieces and nephews. One daughter preceded him in death three years ago.

Final rites will be held Friday at the Schrader Chapel at two o'clock with the Rev. R.A. Klein officiating.

Pallbearers will be Clem McAuley, E.V. May, Walter King, George Mitchell, George Sturgeon and Horace Wilson. Burial will be in the local cemetery.