

PARR, MARCELLUS C.
November, 1875-June 23, 1953

Marcellus C. Parr, a resident of the county for more than thirty-five years, passed away in a local hospital on Tuesday, June 23, following an extended illness. He was born in Ringgold county, Iowa in November of 1875, and was one of the early homesteaders of Platte county. He was never married.

The deceased was affiliated with the Odd Fellows lodge.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow (Friday) afternoon at the Schrader Funeral home with the Rev. Alan Inglis in charge of the service. Burial will be in the Wheatland cemetery.

Surviving relatives include a nephew, James Parr of California and two nieces, Mrs. Irving Tolizen of Amarillo, Tex. and Mrs. Helen Baden of Kansas City, Mo. Mrs. Baden has arrived in Wheatland for the funeral services.