

Olive May Peek

Funeral services for Olive May Peek, 97, were held Friday, March 4, 1994 at 2 p.m. at the United Church of Christ in Wheatland, with the Rev. Dr. James S. Vuocolo officiating. Interment followed in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mrs. Peek died Monday, Feb. 28, 1994 at the Platte County Memorial Hospital in Wheatland.

She was born Nov. 10, 1896 in Somerset County, Pennsylvania, the daughter of Lee W. and Mary Matilda (Whipkey) Sullivan. She moved with her parents to North Dakota in 1898. She was reared and educated in North Dakota, graduating from the State Normal School in Ellendale, N.D., in 1916, and then taught school for three years.

Olive married H. Charles Peek in Ellendale on Sept. 24, 1921. They moved to Wheatland in 1936 and she resided here until the time of her death. Olive was past president of Ora Call Unit No. 10 American Legion Auxiliary, a Past Matron of the Order of Eastern Star, and a long-time member of the United Church of Christ.

She is survived by a sister, Gloy Welch of Hastings, Neb. Also remaining are two nieces and their husbands, Mary Lee and Dr. Richard Bowen of Hastings, Neb., and Nancy and John Quast of Minneapolis, Minn., four nephews, Don Pease of Wilmington, Del., Herbert Pease of Ft. Worth, Tex., David Pease of Houston, Tex., and Mike Pease of Salt Lake City, Utah, three grand-nieces, Susan Boughn of Lawrenceville, N.J., Nancy Barry of Salt Lake City, Utah, and Jayne Debus of Hastings, Neb., one great-grand-niece, Shannon Boughn of Santa Cruz, Calif., and one great-grand-nephew, Troy Barry of Salt Lake City, Utah.

Olive was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Charles in 1976, a son in infancy, one brother and one sister.

Serving as pallbearers were Brent D. Sherard, Bill Vines, LeRoy Rutz, Gergor Goertz, Hardy von Forell and Woody Shore.

A memorial to the United Church of Christ, 11th and Walnut Streets, Wheatland, WY 82201, would be appreciated by the family.

The Platte Funeral Chapel was in charge of arrangements.
