

PENFIELD, CLARENCE MELVIN

December 8, 1903-October 5, 1953

Melvin Penfield, 49, of Leadville, Colo. passed away in the Colorado town on Monday of this week. He was the son of Mrs. Mae Penfield of Wheatland and had resided in Leadville for the past ten years. Prior to that he had made his home in the Lusk and Lance Creek communities, and had frequently visited in Wheatland. He was born in Decatur county, Kans. Dec. 8, 1903. He was employed at the Leadville hospital.

Survivors besides his mother include two sons, Milo of Texas and Keith of the U.S. Army, both of whom are expected in Wheatland for the funeral. There are also two brothers, Orzo and Luther Penfield, both of Lusk, a sister, Mrs. Mary Smith of Rifle, Colo. and two grandchildren.

Services will be conducted by Rev. Charles F. Thomas at the Schrader chapel in Wheatland, Friday afternoon at 2:00. Pallbearers will be nephews and other relatives. Burial will take place in the family plot in the Wheatland cemetery.