Funeral services for Jeannette Anna Petty, 88, were held Thursday, Jan. 10 at 2 p.m. at the Platte Funeral Chapel in Wheatland, with Chet Shaw, minister of the First Christian Church officiating. Interment followed in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mrs. Petty died Tuesday, Jan. 8 at the Platte County Memorial Hospital in Wheatland following a long illness.

She was born Dec. 11, 1902 in Otter Tail County, Minn., the daughter of Gustave and Elizabeth (Cartarius) Schroeder. She moved to the Wheatland area as a young girl, and they homesteaded southwest of Wheatland. She was reared and educated in the Wheatland area.

She was married to John F. Petty on Oct. 6, 1926 in Wheatland. They lived on various ranches in Platte County throughout the years. They owned and operated a restaurant in Chugwater during the late 1950's and early 1960's.

They retired to Wheatland, and she remained a resident of Wheatland, residing the past four years at the Platte County Memorial Hospital Nursing Wing until the time of her death.

She has been affiliated with the First Christian Church.

She is survived by one brother, Arthur Schroeder, of Acampo, Calif., five grandchildren, Norma Cochran, Sandra Taylor, Anna Caaraway, John Eakin and Allen Eakin, all of Cuero, Texas, ten great-grandchildren, and a son-in-law, Robert Eakin of Cuero.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, on Jan. 11, 1973 and one daughter, Faye Eakin, in June, 1989.

Serving as pallbearers were Jim Bohl, John Thalken, Einer Mickelsen, Cleve Artery, Don Gudahl and Fred Hattan.

A memorial to the Platte County Memorial Hospital Nursing Wing, or to the First Christian Church would be equally appreciated by the family.

The Platte Funeral Chapel of Wheatland was in charge of the arrangements.
