

PIERCE, ALICE JOY RIVERA

April 21, 1936-March 9, 1978

Graveside services were held for Alice Joy Pierce Tuesday, March 14, 1978 at the Wheatland Cemetery with Monsignor John J. Corrigan officiating. Rosary services were held Monday, March 13 at 7:30 p.m. at the Schrader-Prell Chapel.

Mrs. Pierce passed away Thursday, March 9, 1978 in Lynwood, California. She was born April 21, 1936 in Wheatland. She moved to Rawlins with her family and graduated from high school there. After graduation, she moved to Greybull and was employed by the State Public Assistance Office. She was transferred to Cheyenne and worked for two years with the Department of Public Assistance there.

She then moved to the Las Angles, California area and had resided there until the time of her death. In California, she was an order taker and receptionist with Paramount Paper Products Company.

She is survived by three daughters, Sylvia Pierce of Wheatland, Debbie Pierce of Los Angles, Calif. and Juanita Jo Corona of Wheatland; her mother, Sylvia Rivera of Wheatland and her two grandchildren. Her father, Joseph A. Rivera, preceded her in death.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of local arrangements.