

Services held Mon. for Walter Pitcher

3-8-1963
Services were held March 11 for Walter Pitcher, a 45 year resident of Wheatland, who succumbed on March 8, 1963 in Wheatland after a long illness. Mr. Pitcher, a retired construction worker, was born in Beaver City, Nebr. Oct. 31, 1897 to Allen and Josephine Pitcher. He was affiliated with the Congregational Church.

Last rites were administered by Rev. Paul Dodds at the Schrader Chapel at 2:00 with interment in the Wheatland cemetery. Al Edwards, Judd Mattison, Clyde West, Sr., Lawrence Moulding, Elvin Hudson and James Valentine served as pallbearers.

Those left to mourn are his wife Mabel and a son Kenneth of Wheatland; two daughters, Mrs. Donna Danculovich of Lordsburg, N. Mex. and Patricia Pitcher of San Francisco; brothers, Pete of Denver, Merl of Ogallala, Nebr., Glen of Fairfield, Calif. and a sister, Mrs. Martha Hamlyn of Elizabeth, Colo.