

WILMA "TILLIE" WICKAM
PIXLER

-12-20-1982

Wilma "Tillie" Wickam Pixler died Monday, Dec. 20, 1982 in Salida, Colo.

She was born Dec. 5, 1913 at York, Neb. At a very young age "Tillie" moved with her parents to Mitchell, Neb. In 1919 they moved to Wheatland. She was raised in Wheatland and graduated from Wheatland High School. She attended college at the University of Wyoming at Laramie. After college, she taught in country schools at Fish Creek and Sybille.

She married Donald Wickam and lived in the Wheatland area until 1952, when they moved to Craig, Colo., They ranched and owned a restaurant until 1965, when they bought a restaurant in Leadville, Colo., and moved there.

In 1973, she married Robert Pixler and continued to live in Leadville until 1978 when they sold the restaurant and bought a motor home and traveled through out the United States.

They moved to Craig, Colo., in 1980 then moved to Arizona for the winter of 1981 and 1982. They moved to Buena Vista, Colo., in April of 1982 to be near her daughter.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. DeAnne K. Terrell of Nathrop, Colo.; one brother, Carl Preuit of Wheatland; two sisters, Evelyn Walter of Wheatland and Donna Settell of Bell Frey, Mont., and four grandchildren.

Mrs. Pixler was preceded in death by her parents, O.S. and Lena Preuit; a son, Robert Wickam and a sister, Gladys Davis.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Cancer Society.

Services were Friday, Dec. 24, 1982 at the Schrader-Prell Funeral Home at 2 p.m. with Dan Barcus officiating. Interment was at Wheatland Cemetery.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.