

Margie Helen Porter 1922 to 1997

Funeral services for Margie Helen Porter were held Tuesday, March 18, 1997 at the Platte Funeral Chapel. Pastor Lynn Nikkel of the Memorial Baptist Church officiated. Interment was in the Wheatland cemetery. Mrs. Porter died Saturday, March 15th at the Platte County Memorial Hospital.

She was born July 24, 1922 in Joplin, Missouri, the daughter of Jim and Fannie (Rhodes) Poe. She was raised and educated in Missouri. On September 4, 1946, she married Robert H. Porter of Winfield, Kansas. They moved to Lynch, Wyoming in 1947; to Glenrock, Wyoming in 1951; and to Wheatland, Wyoming in 1956 and resided there until the time of her death.

Margie was a member of Women of the Moose, and enjoyed fishing and being a homemaker.

Mrs. Porter is survived by her husband, Robert, of Wheatland; a daughter, Phyllis Lee-Hopkins of Longmont, Colorado; six grandchildren, Kelly and Kirby Wilson of Wheatland; Jonah Parsons of Eagle Point, Oregon; Gina, Melissa and Kimberly Lee, all of Longmont; and seven great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; a daughter, Betty Wilson, June 10, 1992; and three brothers and four sisters.

Serving as pallbearers were Kelly Wilson, Frank Tucker, Bill Starck, Phillip Pruss, David Pruss and Travis Starck.

Honorary pallbearers were Kirby Wilson and James Webb.

Memorials made to the choice of the donor would be appreciated by the family.

The Platte Funeral Chapel was in charge of the arrangements.
