

Charles Leslie Potter 1988

~~3-8~~
Funeral services for Charles Leslie Potter were held Monday, March 14, 1988 at 10 a.m. at the Schrader-Prell Funeral Home. Potter, a resident of Wheatland, died March 8, 1988 at the Platte Co. Memorial Hospital.

Potter was born July 18, 1909, in Wheatland, the son of Fred and Mae (Robinson) Potter. He attended high school in Wheatland and graduated in 1927. He then attended college and taught school.

On May 1, 1937, he married Ruby Grisham of Salisbury, Mo., and in 1939 they moved to Glendale, Calif., where both children were born.

In August 1942 they moved to Huntington Park, Calif. where they remained until his retirement.

In July of 1974 he and Ruby returned to Wheatland where he spent his retirement years.

Besides his wife he is survived by a daughter Carolyn and son-in-law Leonard Scratch of Los Angeles, son Fred and daughter-in-law Shirley Potter and granddaughter Lisa of Lanham, Md., and sisters Agnes Meehan of Conroe, Texas and Gertrude Beebe of Signal Hill, Calif.

He was preceded in death by his parents, five brothers and one sister.

Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Memorials to the Platte Co. Memorial Hospital Nursing Wing would be appreciated.
