

Annabel Pulver

Services for Annabel Pulver, 86, who died in Wheatland Dec. 14, 1987, will be held in the Schrader-Prell Funeral Chapel at 10:30 a.m., Thursday, Dec. 17, 1987 with Rev. Chet Shaw officiating.

Annabel Pulver was born in Maskha County, Iowa, March 14, 1901, the daughter of James and Nannie (Kehran) Clark. At the age of 16 she moved with her parents to homestead in Wyoming near Dwyer. She married Richard Pulver on June 25, 1921. They made their home on a ranch west of Dwyer until 1946 when they moved into Wheatland.

She was a member of the Christian Church.

She is survived by her son James and his wife of Glendo, son Milton and his wife of Wheatland, a son-in-law, Max Shafer and his family of Wheatland, 20 grandchildren and 28 great-grandchildren.

Besides her parents she was preceded in death by her husband in 1979, by a daughter, Helen Shafer, and a brother, Mervin Clark.

A memorial has been established in her name to the Services for Seniors.

Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.