

James Richard Pulver

7-9-1994

Funeral services for James Richard Pulver, 72, were held Tuesday, July 12, 1994, at 1 p.m., at the New Testament Church in Wheatland, with Clint Loyd, lay speaker, officiating. Interment followed in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mr. Pulver died Saturday, July 9, 1994 at his home in Wheatland.

He was born Feb. 25, 1922 in Wheatland, the son of Richard and Annabel (Clark) Pulver. He was reared on the family ranch on Fish Creek, and received his schooling at Cottonwood Country School north of Wheatland.

He served in the United States Army in Germany during World War II. He worked on the ranch with his father, brother and sister. In 1957, he went to work for Burlington Northern Railroad, and retired in 1989 as the union representative.

He spent his retirement years in Wheatland. He was married to Mae (Santistevan) Meredith on July 19, 1962 in Denver, Colo. He enjoyed putting jigsaw puzzles together.

He is survived by his wife, Mae of Wheatland, and nine children, G.L. "Sonny" Pulver of Iron Mountain, Wyo., David Pulver of Riverton, Jack Meredith of Laramie, Duane Meredith of Glendo, Roxanne Packard of Rock Springs, Sharon Johnson of Cheyenne, Brenda Strand of Denver, Colo., Kerry Olson of Cheyenne, and Jamie Pulver of Wheatland.

A brother, Milton Pulver of Glendo, 24 grandchildren and seven great-great grandchildren also remain.

He was preceded in death by his parents, a son, Larry Pulver in 1985, a sister, Helen Shafer, and two grandchildren.

Serving as pallbearers were Jack Meredith, Duane Meredith, Sonny Pulver, David Pulver, Don Olson and Don Taylor. Serving as honorary pallbearers were his many friends.

A memorial to the Glendo Emergency Medical Technicians would be appreciated by the family.

The Platte Funeral Chapel of Wheatland was in charge of the arrangements.
