

Jamie Lea Pulver

July 19, 1964 – September 9, 2007

A graveside service and inurnment for Glendo, Wyoming, Jamie Lea Pulver, 43, will be conducted at 2:00 P.M., Friday, September 14, 2007, at the cemetery in Wheatland, Wyoming. She died September 9, 2007, in Wheatland.

Jamie was born July 19, 1964, in Casper, Wyoming, the daughter of James R. and Mae Evelyn (Santistevan) Pulver. She was reared and educated in Glendo graduating from Glendo High School in 1982. She worked various jobs and was working in Gillette, Wyoming, employed by Anderson Highway Signs at the time of her death. Her world revolved around her daughter, Hope Kristen. Jamie enjoyed spending days at the lake, taking drives, fishing, and playing cards with her Mom. She loved her dogs and talking on the phone. She also spent days obsessively cleaning and organizing. Jamie loved Sturgis and had recently taken classes to learn how to ride/ operate motorcycles. She was a hard worker, loved by everyone she touched, and will be greatly missed.

Survivors include her daughter, Hope Pulver of Marina Del Ray, California; mother, Mae Pulver; three sisters, Brenda, Roxie, and Kerry; four brothers, Sonny, Jack, Duane, and David; and several nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her father; a brother, Larry Pulver; a sister, Sharon Pulver; and her maternal and paternal grandparents.

Serving as honorary pallbearers will be her brothers, Sonny Pulver, David Pulver, Jack Meredith and Duane Meredith.

Memorials to the Jamie Pulver Memorial Fund, in care of Mae Pulver, 2404 Fertig Drive, Apt.C, Wheatland, Wyoming 82201 would be appreciated by the family.

Gorman Funeral Homes – Platte Chapel of Wheatland is in charge of the arrangements.