

PULVER, LYNN EUGENE
August 28, 1907-June 1, 1968

Funeral services for Lynn Eugene Pulver, 60, who passed away at Platte Memorial hospital, Sat., June 1, were held Tuesday, June 4, at 2:00 p.m. from the Schrader Chapel, with Christian Science Reader, Mrs. Dorothy Kellog officiating. Guy Holmes, Darrow Blow, Lawrence Warn, William Dannar, William Sutherland and Kay Axford served as pallbearers. Burial was in the local cemetery.

Mr. Pulver, a retired accountant, was born in Fall River, Wisc., Aug. 28, 1907, and had been a resident here since 1917. He was affiliated with the Christian Science Church. Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. James Duck, Wenatchee, Wash., and two grandchildren; two brothers, Richard Pulver, Wheatland and Harry Pulver, Vancouver, Wash.; two sisters, Mrs. Eli Miller, Wheatland and Mrs. Grace McAdams, San Diego, Calif.