

Elva 'June' (Babcock) Randall

September 10, 1929 – December 15, 2012

Funeral services for Elva "June" (Babcock) Randall, 83, will be held at 10:00 A.M. on Saturday, December 22, 2012 at the Christ United Methodist Church, 1868 S. Poplar, Casper, Wyoming with Reverend William D. "Mac" McGrew officiating.

June passed away peacefully on December 15, 2012 at Central Wyoming Hospice and Transitions. June was born on September 10, 1929 in Steele City, Nebraska the daughter of Kenneth and Zelma (Anderson) Babcock. She was raised in Steele City and Fairbury, Nebraska. She attended Fairbury Junior College and Concordia Teachers College in Seward, Nebraska where she earned her teaching certificate. June was involved with the Older Youth Fellowship, a young group of people from the First United Methodist Church and that is where she met her husband of 46 years/Hilton Randall. They were married on August 6, 1955 in Fairbury. They made their home in Casper and raised their family.

After her retirement in 1992, she continued to substitute teach and did some tutoring. June chose her profession well as she cared about the education of children and especially those with special needs. She was also involved with their families, many of those that she continued to keep in touch with.

June enjoyed traveling and made many trips with her very close friend, Betty Davis.

Together they traveled extensively and had many memorable excursions and cruises.

June was a member of the Kappa Kappa Iota Sorority, Christ United Methodist Church, United Methodist Women, the Retired Mountain View Teachers, Casper Whirlwinds and Ghostown Good Sam Clubs, Round-Up Club, Casper F.O.E. # 306, and the Evanston Elks Lodge.

June is survived by her son, John Randall of Evanston, Wyoming, daughter, Bonnie (Steve) Wilson, grandchildren, Jason Crotteau, Craig and Katie Wilson and great granddaughter Bailey Gardner all of Casper.

June was preceded in death by her husband Hilton in 2001, and her par-
