

Nellie May Kinnamon Redding

8 - 26 - 1990

Memorial services for Nellie May Kinnamon Redding, 68, were held Saturday, Sept. 8, at 2 p.m. at the First Christian Church in Wheatland, with Andy Gudahl, minister, officiating. Interment of the cremains were at the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mrs. Redding died Sunday, August 26, at Queen of Angels Hollywood Presbyterian Hospital in Hollywood, Calif., following an illness since August 8.

She was born May 31, 1922, in Wheatland, the daughter of Edward and Eunice Louise (Belcher) Belcher. She was reared and educated in Wheatland.

She was married to Sam Kinnamon on November 25, 1939, in Wheatland. The marriage ended in divorce on March 27, 1963.

She moved to Los Angeles, Calif., in 1960. She was married to Ronald Redding on May 1, 1963, in Los Angeles. She worked as a registered nurse's aid at various nursing homes in the Los Angeles area.

She had remained a resident of the Los Angeles area until the time of her death. She worked for 15 years at the Orchard Gables Nursing Home in the Los Angeles area.

She is survived by her husband, Ronald, of Los Angeles; seven children, Alice Kinnamon of Lander, Gracie Romig of Independence, Kans., Mrs. George (Sylvia) Bussard of Wheatland, Samuel Kinnamon of Scott Air Force Base, Ill., Patrick Kinnamon of Wheatland, Mary Kinnamon of Cheyenne, and Mrs. LaVette (Cora) Siler of Green River.

Three sisters, Mrs. John Pat (Florence) Daly and Edna Leafstedt both of Wheatland and Mrs. Archie (Hazel) McMahan of Buffalo, Wyo., twelve grandchildren and nine great grandchildren also survive.

She was preceded in death by her parents, and one sister, Francis Kilne.

The Platte Funeral Chapel of Wheatland was in charge of the arrangements.

The family may be contacted at the Florence and Pat Daly home at 849 Grayrock Road east of Wheatland.

A memorial to the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation would be equally appreciated by the family.
