

REED, IDA CAROLINE CURTIS
December 12, 1886-October 16, 1976

Funeral services were held Tuesday, October 19, 1976 for Ida Caroline Reed at the Scradler-Prell Chapel with Rev. Victor Berg officiating. Burial was at the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mrs. Reed passed away at the Platte County Memorial Hospital Nursing Wing Saturday, October 16, 1976 at the age of 89. She had been a resident there for the last five years.

She was born in Palmer, Nebraska December 12, 1886. Mrs. Reed came to this area with her brother, Jim Curtis, in 1902 in a covered wagon. They homesteaded East of Wheatland in the Antelope Gap Community. She married Page Reed April 6, 1911 and they farmed in that area until they retired to Wheatland.

She is survived by a daughter, Doris Musselmann of Wilcox, Arizona; two sisters, Grace Trevithick of Pueblo, Colorado and Zelda Skinner of Central Point, Oregon; four grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

Her husband, Page Reed, preceded her in death April 16, 1969.

George Good, J.R. Good, Marlin Marshall, Eldon Musselmann, Glen Valentine, and Craig Baker served as pallbearers.
