

RHOADS, OTTO OSCAR
February 24, 1877-March 7, 1952

Otto Oscar Rhoads, a resident of Wheatland for the past seven years, died suddenly Wednesday morning in Wheatland. He had been hospitalized for several days.

Mr. Rhoads was born in Wichita, Kan. February 24, 1877 and had lived in Sheridan prior to moving to Wheatland where he was retired from farming.

He was a member of the Methodist church.

Survivors include his wife, Elona; three sons, W.H. Rhoads of Wheatland, J.D. Rhoads of Hope, Ida., L.E. Rhoads of Greeley, Colo.; four daughters, Inez Timm of Grover, Colo., Bessie Loman of Sandpoint, Ida., Oro Waln of San Fernando, Calif., Thelma West of Sandpoint, Ida.; and one sister, Josie Williams of Boise, Ida.

Funeral services are tentatively planned for Saturday in the Methodist church with the Rev. Howard Rice officiating. Burial will be in the Wheatland cemetery.