

IN MEMORIAM 1960

John J. Robb, 75, long-time brand inspector for the Wyoming Stock Growers Association, died recently in a rest home in Gering, Nebraska. He was born August 27, 1884 in Texas. He attended school at Gering, later moving to La-Grange, Cheyenne and Chugwater where he was employed by the Swan Land and Cattle Company.

For many years he was brand inspector at Omaha, later moving to Kansas City, where he was brand inspector for Nebraska.

He was married in 1908 to Alice Morrison, who survives. Other survivors include three sons, John Jay and Thomas Jay of Kansas City, Mo., and C. Merle of Winslow, Ariz.; two sisters, Mrs. Frank McCreary of Scottsbluff and Mrs. K. K. Plehn of El Monte, Calif.; 19 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

is
of
ng
nt
ed
ed
at-
it-
ne
by
n-
p-
al

on-
ry
ay
tal
ed
he
at
he
at-
er
ah