9-6-1990
Memorial services for Helen Nadine Robbins, 73, were held Tuesday, Sept. 11 at 10 a.m., at the United Methodist Church in Wheatland, with the Rev. Susan D. Phifer officiating. Interment of the cremains were held in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mrs. Robbins died Thursday, Sept. 6, at the Wyoming Medical Center in Casper. She was born March 1, 1917 at Burns, Kans., to J.W. and Alta Irene (Childs) Daly.

In 1940 she came to Wheatland to take a nursing job in the Phifer Hospital, where she continued on into the Platte County Memorial Hospital, from which she retired. Nursing was her lifelong profession.

She established a good reputation as a nurse where she had many friends whom she helped back to health.

She was preceded in death by her first husband, M.R. Williams. On Sept. 30, 1976, she married Harry J. Robbins in Guernsey, and continued to live in Wheatland.

She is survived by her husband, Harry, of Wheatland; one sister, Irene McCreary, and a brother-in-law, Mac McCreary of Wheatland. Three nieces, Virginia Lee McCord, Judy Ann Woolsey and Marsha Jean Wilcox, who all reside away from the Wheatland area also survive.

A memorial to the United Methodist Church would be appreciated by the family.

The Platte Funeral Chapel was in charge of arrangements.
