

ROBINSON, ELIZABETH M.
May 2, 1886-January 30, 1965

Mrs. Elizabeth Robinson, age 78, succumbed in Cheyenne, January 30, 1965, following a brief illness. She had resided in Eventide Manor for the past eight months.

Mrs. Robinson was born in Lead, South Dakota on May 2, 1886 and came as a child to Wyoming where she lived for some time at Horsecreek. She attended high school in Sturgis, S. Dak. , graduating from Spearfish Normal and came to Wheatland in 1906.

The deceased was married to Howard Archer Robinson in Sturgis in 1911. She was a member of the Episcopal church.

Last rites were conducted by the Rev. Albert C, Baker at the All Saints Episcopal Church on Feb. at 2:00 p.m. Interment was in the Wheatland cemetery.

Serving as pallbearers were L.A. Shepard, Robert Russell, Clark Fritz, Sonny Criss, Ed Foreman and Harry Coleman.

Relatives left to mourn are a son, Frank Robinson; a daughter, Mrs. LeGrande (Dorothy) Page and grandchildren, James and JaNell Page and Ann Robinson, all of Wheatland.