

crash on April 3rd claimed the life of 22 year old Laramie, Wyoming resident Angel C. Rocha. The crash occurred on Wyoming Highway 130 at 5:50 p.m. near mile post 30 approximately three miles west of Centennial, Wyoming.

Mr. Rocha was driving a 1998 Ford Explorer eastbound on WY 130 when he failed to negotiate a right-hand curve in the roadway. The Ford crossed the centerline, was steered to the right and entered a spin leaving the highway to the south. After the Ford left the road, it tripped and rolled several times. Mr. Rocha was ejected during the crash as he was not wearing his seat belt. Mr. Rocha sustained fatal injuries on scene.

Speed and suspected controlled substance use are being investigated at this time as contributing factors in this crash. Mr. Rocha marked the 26th highway fatality in Wyoming for 2015.
