

Hildegard K. Roff

Services for Hildegard K. Roff, 87, who died Jan. 5, 1988, in Tulsa, Okla., were held in the Wheatland Cemetery Jan. 11, 1988, at 1 p.m. with Father Kale King officiating.

Born in New London, Wisc., Sept. 21, 1900, she spent much of her early life in Wheatland where she married Ray Roff in 1919. Shortly after their marriage they moved to Cheyenne and then later to Oklahoma.

They then moved to Wheatland where they lived until 1954, at which time they moved to Missouri. After his death she returned to Wheatland in 1973 where she remained until 1986 when she went to Tulsa to be near a son.

Survivors include her son Bill Roff of Tulsa, son Jim Roff of Wheatland, daughter Helen Swartz of Aurora, Colo., sister Bernetta Carberry of Wheatland and brother Carl Miritz of Hamilton, Mont.

Besides her parents and husband she was preceded in death by son Ray Roff, Jr., in 1981, sister Ogilvie and brothers Marvin and Homer Miritz.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home of Wheatland was in charge of arrangements.
