

Evelyn "Granny" Romig

Services for Evelyn "Granny" Romig, 71, who died at her home in Wheatland, Wyoming, June 20, 1988, were held in the Platte Funeral Chapel at 10:30 A.M., Friday the 24th, with Father Kale King officiating.

Born December 18, 1916, in Goshen Hole, Wyoming, she was the daughter of Edgar and Bertie (Teeters) Duford. A native of Wyoming, she did, however, live for a time in both Utah and New Mexico. She and Roger Romig were married in Gering, Nebraska, February of 1937. They farmed east of Wheatland and in later years ran the Eight Ball Pool Hall in town. She was an excellent seamstress and considered both sewing and baking her hobbies.

She was a dedicated member of the Moose Lodge.

Survivors include her daughter, Venita Marker of Green Valley, Arizona, three grandchildren, Gary Lee Marker of Ft. Wayne, Indiana, Melanie Huckfeldt of Torrington, Derek Marker of
