

ROSS, ALFRED FRED

February 27, 1868-December 9, 1940

Alfred Fred Ross was born in Illinois Feb. 27, 1868, and passed away at the Wheatland hospital, Wyo., Dec. 9th, 1940. Age 72 yrs., 9 mos. and 12 days.

As a boy, he left with his parents and moved to Kansas and later to Iowa. It was a Fontanelle, where he met and married Minnie Ewing, Nov. 26th, 1890. To this union were born three children: Homer of Randolph, Nebr., Cebrin, Sheridan, Wyo. and Isabelle Benning of Randolph, Nebr. Mr. Ross with his wife came to Wheatland community in 1929 and have made this their home since.

Farming and working on the farm has been his occupation and he has built up in the time he was here a host of friends, by his honest and straightforward attitude.

In early boyhood he was converted and later became a member of the Congregational church.

His life was manifest by action, not by words. He leaves to mourn, his wife, 3 children, 11 grandchildren and one brother, Charles of Orient, Iowa and a host of friends.

✓ The pallbearers were chosen from his Sunday school class of the Muir Community Sunday School northwest of Wheatland. They were E.L. Pritchard, Andy Johnston, D. Bush, Sam Edmiston, Sr., Wm. Yost and F.B. May.

The choir, also chosen from the Sunday School were Mr. and Mrs. E.B. May, Inner Franzen and Mrs. Vogt. Mrs. Bart Bellis was at the piano.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 from the Congregational church with Rev. Noyce officiating.

Watson and Dennis were charge of arrangements.
