

ROVED, MARTIN
1845-October 7, 1926

Martin Roved, 80 year old rancher of the Dover district, died Thursday in the hospital here, after a long illness.

The aged man was a native of Denmark, but had spent the past fifty years in Wyoming at Laramie, Cheyenne, and at the Dover ranch, living with his brother, Louis P. Roved. Last spring both brothers came down from the ranch to live in Wheatland on account of Martin's health.

The funeral was held Saturday, October 9th, from the Watson Mortuary, and was attended by a number of the pioneer ranchers of the Dover section.
