

Mrs. Charles F. Rugg ✓
Pioneer of Wyoming
Passes Away Tuesday

Mother of Arthur Rugg,
Prominent Merchant
Dies in Denver

9-11-1927
Mrs. Effie A. Rugg, 67 years of age, wife of Charles F. Rugg, and a pioneer of Wyoming, died Tuesday morning at Denver, Colo. Mrs. Rugg had been ailing for twelve years and when she became suddenly worse the first of the week was taken to Denver, where she died during an operation for gall stones at a hospital.

Mrs. Rugg was born, November 17, 1859, in Vermont, and came to Wyoming in 1878, being married to Charles Rugg on October 24, 1878, to Charles F. Rugg. Mr. and Mrs. Rugg lived at Muddy creek, east of Cheyenne, until 1882, when they moved to Bear creek, east of Chugwater. Later they moved to Cheyenne and in 1918 came to Wheatland where they have made their home continuously since that time.

She is survived by the husband; one son, Arthur Rugg, prominent merchant of Wheatland; one daughter, Mrs. J. A. Tobin of Laramie, a sister, Mrs. Mary Sheldon of Denver, and a brother, Hiram Wheeler of Monroe City, Missouri.

The funeral will be held at 2:30 Friday afternoon from the Wheatland Methodist church with R. M. Lamont of Cheyenne, Christian Science reader in charge of the services. A short funeral service was held Wednesday afternoon at the Temple mortuary in Denver. Burial will take place at the Wheatland cemetery. The Watson mortuary is in charge of the arrangements here.

—Grouch Your Camfira—