

RUNYAN, ELLA ANN
1917-August 1918

Little Ella Ann Runyan passed into the great unknown Wednesday evening, at ten o'clock at the Wheatland hospital. Ella was the ten months' old daughter of Cora Bell and Ross H. Runyan. The little one's sickness only lasted thirty-six hours beginning at noon Tuesday. The child was taken in the hospital and was operated on about noon Wednesday for gangrene of the bowels, but the child was too far gone for the operation to be a success.

The funeral took place two o'clock Thursday from the Methodist church. The sympathy of their many friends goes with the parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Phelps, in this hour of sadness.
