

RUSH, HENRY
?-January 27, 1936

Wheatland lost one of its most colorful characters Monday when Henry Rush passed away. He was better known to his friends "Dutch" Henry.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon from the Lyla Watson Funeral Home with Rev. J.M. Williams of the Methodist church in charge of the services. Interment took place in the Wheatland cemetery.

Very little is known of the life of the deceased. He was born in Germany and came to the United States when he was young. He had lived in Wheatland for many years and was well known by all the old timers. His age is not known but it is thought he was between 80 and 85 years of age.

When he first came here, he worked at several occupations. When the present water tower was built, he helped on the construction. After the tower was completed he had the misfortune to fall off the platform at the bottom of the tank.

In the past few years, he had not been in the best of health but up to a short time ago, was able to get up town to visit his friends. If he had any surviving children,
