

Sarah Russell Rites to Be In Wheatland

2-19-1961
Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah Russell will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday in the Congregational church at Wheatland. Burial will be in the Wheatland cemetery.

Widow of A. D. Russell, former Republican member of the state house of representatives and a pioneer rancher in the Wheatland community, Mrs. Russell died Monday at Douglas. She was 80 years old.

Mrs. Russell was born Aug. 10, 1881, in Charleston, Ill., and she and her husband ranched at Dwyer, near Wheatland, for more than 50 years. He died in 1945.

She is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Frances Westfall of Barrington, R.I.; Mrs. Fay Boyd, Laramie; Mrs. Barbara Peterson, Douglas; and Miss Wilma Russell, Wheatland; and three sons, Clayton B. Russell, Glendo; Lauriston C. Russell, Cheyenne; and Robert K. Russell of the ranch at Dwyer.