

FEBRUARY 17, 2011

PROMINENT RANCHWOMAN DIES

Mrs. Ettie Rutherford, wife of J.N. Rutherford, who owns a ranch near Glendo, passed away on Monday afternoon, February 13, at the hospital in Douglas where she had been taken for treatment. Mrs. Rutherford had been an invalid for several months, her death being caused by stomach trouble. Besides the husband, the deceased is survived by five children, a mother, Mrs. Wyman, of Uva, a brother, Eugene Wyman, of the same place, and several sisters who reside in this section.

The remains were shipped to Wheatland on Tuesday, interment taking place in the cemetery at this place on Wednesday afternoon. Funeral services were held at the M.E. Church, and were conducted by Rev. J.K. Hicks.

The bereaved family has the sympathy of everyone in their affliction.