

Jane Frances (Meyer) Ruwart

November 8, 1931 – November 3, 2006

Jane Frances (Meyer) Ruwart, 74, passed away at United Medical Center in Cheyenne, WY on Friday November 3, 2006 after a long illness. Jane was the loving wife of Chuck Ruwart, Jr. (49 years) and the mother of Chuck Ruwart III, Rosalie Ruwart & Bob Ruwart. Her fourth child, Milton, died at birth in 1967.

Jane and her twin brother Jim, were born in St. Charles, MO on November 8, 1931 to Milton E. Meyer, Sr. and Jessie (Hurley) Meyer. She graduated from the Academy of the Sacred Heart High School in St. Charles in 1949 and attended Lincolnwood College in St. Charles for two years. Jane decided to go into nursing and graduated from St. John's Hospital School of Nursing in St. Louis, MO in 1955 and practiced nursing for two years before moving to Denver, CO to nurse at St. Joseph's Hospital in 1957. She met Chuck and they were married shortly thereafter on November 30, 1957. In 1966 Chuck purchased a Chevrolet, in Denver. They owned the dealership until 1985. In that same year, they moved to Dillon, CO. Jane loved the peace and tranquility of living in the Mountains. While living in Dillon, Jane was an avid fisherman and enjoyed cross-country skiing. In 1990, Jane & Chuck moved to Wheatland, WY to be near their son Bob, who had purchased Bob Ruwart Motors in Wheatland.

Jane was a lifelong Catholic and was a member of Most Precious Blood Parish in Denver and of St. Patrick's Parish in Wheatland. She was a member of the Altar & Rosary Society in Denver and served as secretary of the St. Patrick's Council of Catholic

Jane Ruwart

Women in Wheatland.

Jane loved to needle point and petty point. One of her proudest accomplishments was the petty point tapestry she made of DaVinci's Last Supper. She also enjoyed traveling, water skiing and playing bridge and gin rummy with her many friends in Wheatland and Denver. The highlight of her life was that all of her family was able to move to Wheatland and spend much quality time with her in her later years. She will be greatly missed by her family and friends.

Her father, mother and brother, Harold Meyer, preceded her in death. She is survived by her husband Chuck of Wheatland, her brothers Milton (Bob) Meyer and Jim Meyer both of Denver, CO. Son & Daughter-In-Law Chuck III & Lori Ruwart and their five children Charley IV, Amanda, Brendan, Christopher and Patrick; her daughter Rosalie; and her Son & Daughter-In Law Bob & Rhonda Ruwart and their children Jeff & Annie Herb and Jason Herb all of Wheatland.

The Rosary for the deceased and Funeral Mass will both be at St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Wheatland. The Rosary will be held on Monday November 13 at 7:00 pm and the Funeral Mass & Burial will be held Tuesday November 14 at 11:00 am. Internment will be in the Wheatland Cemetery, Wheatland, WY.

A memorial fund in Jane's name has been set up at First State Bank of Wheatland to benefit the opening of a dialysis center in Wheatland.

Gorman Funeral Homes is in charge of the arrangements.
