

RYFF, META INEZ LAMBERT
May 31, 1895-March 21, 1969

Meta Inez Ryff passed away at Memorial Hospital after an extended illness on Mar. 21. Services were conducted on Mar. 24, at the Christian Church at 2:00 p.m. with Mr. James E. Runner officiating. Interment was in the Wheatland cemetery.

Mrs. Ryff, 73, was born in Daleville, Ind., May 31, 1895. She had lived in Wheatland since 1912 at which time she graduated from Wheatland High School. She married Fred Ryff on July 14, 1918. She had lived on the Wheatland Flats for 35 years, before moving into Wheatland where she had made her home for the past 15 years.

Mrs. Ryff was a musician and had given piano lessons for many years, and in her early years in the community had played for dances as a member of a dance orchestra. Then too, prior to her illness, she had been employed at The Record-Times as a linotype operator. Never one to be idle, she was also well known for her fine needlework.

Survivors include her husband, Fred Ryff; three sons, Dean and Lambert of Wheatland, and Don of Sunset, Utah; two daughters, Floy Pasley of Corvallis, Ore., and Edwina Johnson of Walnut Creek, Calif., 12 grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

A son, Cecil, preceded her in death on July 23, 1937.

Pallbearers were Ken Cook, Bryce Orr, Don Olson, Myles Echelberger, Arlyn Moss and Jim Dunham.
