

UNKNOWN MALE III

?-September 19, 1914

NEWS ITEM: As a result of new developments, the preliminary hearing of Steve Monuck, held for the murder of the unknown Austrian laborer here near the beet dump on the night of Sunday, September 20, is being held over. It is being regarded that it is possible now that Monuck may not be the right man in spite of the fact that many circumstances point to his guilt.

It is believed that another Uva witness will be secured to make the matter more conclusive one way or the other and this person will be examined in a short time, when the preliminary hearing will probably take place.
