

UPDIKE, WILLIAM MAJOR
November 24, 1905-June 2, 1946

William Major Updike, 40, died Sunday, June 2, at Sidney, Nebr. following a short illness. Mr. Updike was a fireman for the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad and he and his family were on vacation at Sidney at the time of his death. He was born in Clarinda, Ia. and had recently moved to Wheatland.

He is survived by his wife, one son, Arthur and one daughter, Betty of Wheatland; his father, Arthur C. Updike and a sister, Mrs. A.B. Thomas of Big Springs, Nebr.; and a brother, Arthur S. Updike of California.

Funeral services were held today (Thursday) at the Pentecostal church with the Rev. D.F. Chaffin officiating. The Schrader Funeral home was in charge of arrangements with burial in the Wheatland cemetery.

Pallbearers were Earl Locke, Herb Christensen, Robert Wiggam, Willis Houk, William Glantz, and Lon Miller.