

WAITMAN, HALLIE M.
August 4, 1874-December 1, 1952

The community was greatly saddened Monday, to learn of the death of long time resident, Hallie Waitman. Mrs. Waitman had been a resident of Wheatland for 57 years.

She was born in Fairmount, Missouri, August 4, 1874, and died at the Wheatland hospital December 1, 1952, following an extended illness. A member of the Methodist church, and very active until recently in the V.F.W. Auxiliary of which she was a member.

She is survived by one son, Jerry Waitman of Wheatland, two daughters, Mrs. Ardella Helton of Rapid City, S.D. and Garnet Dower of Wheatland; two brothers, A.E. Smith of Iowa and Jesse Clark of Mountain View; one sister, Emma Shilling of Iowa; five grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held on Thursday in the Methodist Church at 2 p.m. with Rev. Howard Rice officiating. Burial in the Wheatland cemetery.

Pallbearers were Eldon Randall, Al Erlandson, W.B. Spence, Ward Goodrich, Don Hunton and Rupert Potter. Honorary pallbearers were Charles Nelson, Alex Cole, Reuben Good, Harry Dearing, Robert Ferguson, Fred Potter, Joe Campbell, Frank Windom and James Chaplin.