

4-12-1983
Services for Leonard Weber, 77, who died Monday in Wheatland, will be held at 2 p.m. today in the Wheatland Bible Church with the Rev. Gordon Swedberg officiating.

Weber was born Jan. 12, 1908 at Loveland, Colo., the son of Peter and Margret Weber.

In 1920 the family moved and settled into farming on the south flats seven miles south of Wheatland.

He married his neighborhood sweetheart, Hazel Baker, on Jan. 31, 1930, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Leslie Bullen of Spokane, Wash. They celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary this past January.

The couple continued farming south of Wheatland until 1972 when they retired to a home at 59 14th St. in Wheatland.

Besides his wife he is survived by two sons, Alan Weber of Wheatland and Paul Weber of Burke, Va., seven grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Memorial contributions in his name may be made to the Gideon Society in care of Jack Dinnel.

Burial will be in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

W
W 195
M ar
ho
19
C
E
W W
th
R t t e f
s
I