

WEBSTER, DAISY MAY ISOM

June 3, 1882-June 14, 1913

Daisy May Isom was born in Smithland, Iowa, June 3rd, 1882. She departed this life in Wheatland, Wyo., June 14th, 1913. Age 31 years and 11 days.

She was united in marriage to Frank Webster at Douglas, Wyoming, March 23, 1905.

For a number of years they made Wheatland their home, where they have made many friends and where a number of their relatives reside.

Mrs. Webster was taken ill about the 8th of June. All that could be done by skill and loving care was unavailable, and after a brief sickness in which her suffering was intense, she gave up this life and went out into the great beyond where wicked cease troubling and the weary are at rest.

She leaves to mourn her untimely death, her husband, two little daughters, Florence and Ethel, ages respectively, 12 and 14 years, also her father, mother, brothers and sisters of home.

Her funeral services were held at the Methodist church conducted by the pastor. Floral offerings were abundant and beautiful, and there was a large congregation of sympathizing friends and neighbors present to pay their last tribute of respect to the departed. The interment was in the Wheatland cemetery.

Yesterday Mrs. Webster was alive and going about the busy affairs of life, today she is sleeping with those who have gone into the other life. So brief and uncertain is the span of this life.

Mr. Webster and the motherless children with the relatives have the sympathy of their friends in their great sorrow and may the Father above comfort and keep them in the days of loneliness that are sure to come.
