

Rites Held For Flora West Aug. 1

7-29-1942
Private funeral and interment services for Mrs. Flora L. West were held Tuesday August 1st at the First Baptist Church in Wheatland, with Rev. J. Douglas Neumann officiating. Burial will be at the Wheatland cemetery. Mrs. West was the former postmaster in the Lindberg community, in eastern Laramie county for 20 years.

Mrs. West, 84, died Friday at Fort Collins where she had made her home for the past two and half years.

Mr. and Mrs. West resided in Wheatland for several years, in the 1920's before moving to Lindberg, where she was Lindbergs only postmaster.

Mrs. West was born August 14, 1887, at Lorton, Nebr., spending her early life in that area later moving to Wyoming.

Her husband, Walter H. West, helped establish the First Baptist church in Wheatland. He died in 1929.

She is survived by four children, Mrs. Violet Stearly of Fort Collins, Miss Gladys West of Mount Prospect, Ill., Mrs. Leonard Ross of Moran and Merrill West of Oshkosh, Nebr.

Other survivors are two sisters and a brother, Mrs. Mayme West of Lincoln, Nebr., Mrs. Abbie Swanson of Auburn, Nebr., and Frank Biggs of El Centro Calif.; and two grandchildren. Among the survivors still living in Wheatland are, Herbert Christensen, Mabel Berg, Mary Wilson, and Carl West, nieces and nephews.
