

WESTCOTT, EZRA
November 16, 1856-March 5, 1931

Ezra Westcott, long-time resident of Wheatland and Platte county, passed away at the Holcomb home, west of town, this morning, Thursday.

Mr. Westcott suffered a stroke last summer and since that time, has not been in good health. Sunday he suffered another stroke and hopes for his recovery were not very bright.

According to the Longwith-Richards Funeral Home, who have charge of the body, funeral arrangements await word from relatives in Missouri.

Mr. Westcott was well-known in Wheatland and vicinity as he has made his home here for years.

Ezra Westcott was born November 16, 1856 near Troy, Iowa. He married Fannie Knott about 35 years ago and worked for the Swan Company many years before and after, he homesteaded near Bordeaux. Mrs. Westcott passed away last May.
