

BARBARA S. WHITING

2-6-1983

Barbara S. Whiting died Sunday, Feb. 6, 1983 in Buffalo, Minn.

Services were held Thursday, Feb. 10, 1983 at St. Mark's Episcopal Church in Cheyenne with Rev. Eugene Todd officiating. Interment was in Wheatland Cemetery.

Graveside services were conducted Thursday, Feb. 10, with Rev. Sidney Hoadley officiating.

She was born March 8, 1924 in Wheatland. She graduated from Wheatland High School in 1941 and Wyoming University in 1945.

She was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma and Quill and Scroll. She did graduate work at the Denver University in 1946, and was a member of Kappa Alpha Delta in Sociology. She worked at the Colorado Department of Public Welfare until 1951.

She married Derald Whiting in 1948 and lived in Jefferson Co., Colorado until 1970.

She was active in the Episcopal Church and the Community and earned a Master's Degree from the Iliff School of Theology in Religion in 1978.

She worked as a part-time teacher in Cheyenne from 1972 until 1981.

Survivors include two daughters, Deirdre Plummer of Brisbane, Australia and Anne Miller of Buffalo, Minn.; a son, Christopher Whiting of Craig, Colo. and six grandchildren.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of local arrangements.