

WIEGAND, VIOLA E. HUDSON
October 7, 1886-December 26, 1920

The grim angel of death visited the vicinity of Wheatland last Friday afternoon and took with him the soul of Viola E. Wiegand, beloved wife of Wm. J. Wiegand and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.A.W. Hudson.

Mrs. Wiegand was born Oct. 7, at Hudson, Hayes Co., Nebr. With her parents she moved to Wyoming in August, 1895, then residing at Fish Creek. Later the family moved to the Wheatland community. On Sept. 1, 1915, Viola Hudson was united in the bonds of matrimony to Wm. J. Hudson of this community. For five years the happy young couple traveled thru life's pathway together, having all things in common, happy and content with each other. Two children were given to them, Lona Marie, four years old, and Melvin Wright, not yet a year old. These motherless children with a broken-hearted father are left to mourn the untimely departure of a wonderful mother and a kind, cheerful and ever-loving wife.

Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon from the Lutheran Church, Rev. M. Schabacker conducting the services. Funeral sermon was based on Ps. 34 "My Times are in Thy Hands". A host of friends are sorrowing with the many relatives for the departed spirit. The gracious Lord will heal the wounds that He has made and bind them with His everlasting kindness and mercy.
