Carole Irene Wilhelm

Wheatland---Funeral Liturgy for Wheatland resident Carole Irene Wilhelm, 61, will be celebrated at 10 a.m. Wednesday at St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Wheatland by Fr. Jan Santich. Interment will be in Wheatland Cemetery.

Vigil for the Deceased will be at 7 p.m today

She died May 3, 2002, at her home surrounded by family and close friends, after a courageous battle with cancer.

She was born Feb 16, 1941, in Sheridan, the daughter of Daniel A and Elma Maxine (Davis) Mooney; was raised and educated in Sheridan; and graduated from high school in 1959. She then attended cosmetology school in Sheridan.

In 1961, she moved to Wheatland.

On Feb. 16, 1963, she married Jake Edward Wilhelm.

For 27 years, she owned and operated the Crystal Door Style Salon and retired in 1998.

She especially loved spending time with her grandchildren. A member of the Council of Catholic Women, she and her husband belonged to the Cowboy Joe Club and enjoyed attending University of Wyoming football and basketball games.

Other hobbies included gardening, landscaping, drying flowers and flower-arranging, decorating and refinishing furniture.

Survivors include her husband of Wheatland, daughter, Heidi Lynn of Denver, son, Michael Patrick and his wife of Wheatland; two grandchildren; mother of Sheridan; three sisters, Michelle McDonald of Casper, Patricia Shearin of Laramie and Helen Hendrickson of Sheridan; and three brothers, David Mooney of Chicago, John Mooney of Topeka, Kan., and Daniel Mooney of Carson City, Nev.

She was preceded in Death by her father.

The family would appreciate memorials to the hospice of Platte County, P.O. Box 1025, Wheatland Wy 82201; St Patrick's Catholic Church, 1009 Ninth St., Wheatland; or Holy Name School, Sheridan 82801.

Platte Funeral Chapel of Wheatland is in charge of arrangements.
