

Longtime Rancher,
John Wilkinson,
Succumbs Friday

¹⁻¹⁴⁻¹⁹⁷²
John Wilkinson, 74, succumbed to an extended illness Friday, January 14, 1972 at the Platte County Memorial Hospital.

A lifetime resident of Wheatland, Mr. Wilkinson was a self-employed rancher northwest of Wheatland. He was born in Laramie County May 1, 1897.

Survivors include two brothers, Frank and William and one nephew, George Wilkinson, all of Wheatland. One brother, Thomas preceded him in death.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, January 18, 1972 at the Schrader Chapel at 3:30 p.m. with Monsignor F. J. Kimmett officiating. Interment was at the Wheatland Cemetery. Serving as pallbearers were George Waln, Jack Bruegman, James N. Wilson, D. L. Wilson, Keith Artery and Wayne King.

Arrangements were made by the Schrader Funeral Home.